

22 November 2010

Irene King
Chief Executive
Aviation Industry Association
PO Box 2096
WELLINGTON 6140

Dear Irene

AMC Legal Services Ltd is a newly established incorporated Law Firm, which specialises in civil aviation and public law matters.

Our vision is to provide quality legal services and representation to aviation industry participants on legal issues arising from or in relation to their activities in the civil aviation regulatory system.

Angela Beazer was admitted to the Bar in 2001 and has over five years of experience as an in house legal adviser in the public sector, including as Senior Solicitor for the Civil Aviation Authority.

Angela is now in practice as a Barrister for AMC Legal Services Ltd, and is available to take instructions on a wide range of matters, from advice on the interpretation of or compliance with civil aviation rules, certification and licensing requirements, assistance with drafting exemptions or making submissions on rule changes, to representation in legal proceedings brought by or against the Director of Civil Aviation or the Civil Aviation Authority.

For a confidential, free initial consultation of up to half an hour, please contact or email the writer at the details below.

Yours sincerely

AMC Legal Services Ltd
Angela Beazer
Director

