

SUMMARY HIGHLIGHTS OF 2016:

to achieve a safe aviation environment for members

ADVOCACY - A united voice makes us all strong

- 14 (+ 2) submissions on major issues
- Meetings and input to wide range of regulatory agencies

EXPERTISE – Technical assistance/advice to members and agencies

- General advice to members and agencies
- Problem solving for members and agencies

COMMUNICATIONS – Improving member knowledge

- Website update
- Monthly and weekly newsletters
- Development of social media presence
- Several networking opportunities
- Press releases and articles

MEMBER BENEFITS – Improving ability of members to do business

- Increased N3 savings
- Development of new templates
- Acquisition of sponsors

PERFORMANCE – The organisation grows and becomes stronger

- 24 new members
- Balanced budget achieved

DETAILED HIGHLIGHTS

to achieve a safe aviation environment for members

ADVOCACY

Submissions on

ACC Levies, Airstrip Safety Guidance, Airways Funding Review, BREXIT, Australia ASEAN New Zealand Free Trade Agreement, CAA Funding Review, Commerce Act, Fertiliser Flow Properties, Future of ELTs, Future Mobility; Hazardous substances, Middlemarch proposed danger area, National Rural Fire Authority, and Unattended controls.

Submissions being developed on

Fatigue Risk Management, and Air Ambulance Co-design project

Meetings and input to agencies including

Airways; Business NZ; Business Councils; CAA; Callaghan Innovation; DoC; IRD; EPA; Ministries of Defence, Foreign Affairs and Trade, and Transport; Regional Councils; NZQA; NZ Trade & Enterprise; TAIC; TEC; Tourism Industry Aotearoa and Whole of Government Aviation Group.

Successes

- revised Rule Part 61
- new Rule Part 147
- new Integrated Professional Pilot Training Programme
- small cost increases in Airways Pricing Review
- changes to IR564 (GST on B2B)

EXPERTISE

Subjects included

Down to the Wire, GST on B2B, CAA15As, CA005s, hazardous substances, Health and Safety, New Southern Sky (NSS), SMS and Qualification Review.

Successes:

- Activity and Safety Reports for NZAAA and NZHA gain credibility with similar reporting initiated for Training and Development
- Down to the Wire gaining momentum and saving lives
- Updated and modernised qualification review submitted to NZQA for approval and problem solving on a one to one basis with members.
-

DETAILED HIGHLIGHTS

to achieve a safe aviation environment for members

COMMUNICATIONS

Websites

AIA and AvNZ sites merged and updated with considerable improvement in functionality

Social media

Facebook and Twitter pages went live in August

Newsletters

49 weekly, 3 divisional monthly newsletters, other divisional periodic newsletters

Networking with members

Industry conference, 15 divisional meetings, Parliamentary function

Press releases and articles on

Hawkes Bay agricultural accident, Global markets and opportunities for NZ, Leadership Awards, Leadership Summit, TAIC Reports, and Wires Kill Pilots. This resulted in a wide range of related media interviews. Articles/columns for NZ industry media.

Successes:

- unique visits to website 37148 (12 months ended December)
- Number of media interviews with comments in hard and soft copy.

MEMBER BENEFITS

Savings

Through N3, 128 members saved an average $3012 ($734 up on 2015), NZForex being used by some members for foreign exchange transactions

Templates provided on

Employment Contracts, Employment Offer letters, SMS for small and medium sized companies, ACC member bulk discount (being developed)

Sponsors

23 contracted, logos attached

PERFORMANCE

Member numbers

24 new members across all divisions

Balanced budget

Sponsors

BUSINESSTECHNOLOGYSUCCESS

